OTHER:

WELLCRAFT 44 EXPLORER

We continue to push the boundaries of Performance Cruisers with the introduction of our newest flagship, the Wellcraft 44 Explorer.

This rugged and capable boat is designed to withstand any weather and conquer any territory, making it the ultimate choice for boaters who demand the best while seeking their next adventures.

Bigger, Bolder

Designed by the famed Garroni Studio in Italy and the highly recognized American naval architect Michael Peters, this strong and sophisticated model boasts impressive length of 44' (13.4m). Powered with triple outboard engines totaling over 1,000 HP and equipped with a full beam pilot station, highly responsive controls, and exceptional navigation systems, the Wellcraft 44 Explorer responds to the toughest demands and meets every challenge – to go anywhere, to do anything.

Ultimate Comfort and Convenience

The Wellcraft 44 Explorer is designed to provide the ultimate in comfort and convenience. The high freeboard and starboard side door make life onboard easy and safe. The bow features two (2) large social areas with a generous triple sun lounger and seating designed for entertaining, while the aft provides two (2) comfortable lateral folding side terraces for a spacious open-air gathering area.

Luxurious Spacious Interior

Crafted for luxurious comfort, the spacious living area and interior are sure to impress. High-quality materials used throughout the interior provide a comfortable on-board experience. The protected wheelhouse features pilot and co-pilot benches for three (3) and a fully equipped galley at the deck level seamlessly connects the aft cockpit living space. Below deck are two (2) spacious cabins with private bathrooms each having separate showers providing accommodations for up to five (5) people. The Wellcraft 44 Explorer has an abundance of storage space to ensure everything is kept neat and organized, making it the ultimate boat for unforgettable adventures.
