OTHER:

Simplicity, Performance & Pure Sailing Pleasure

The new BENETEAU First 36 Spirit represents a new generation of planing sailing yachts, designed to deliver an authentic, intuitive and exhilarating sailing experience. Combining lightness, functionality and ease of handling, she creates a direct connection between the sailor, the wind and the sea.

Designed by a team of experts including Samuel Manuard, naval architect, Lorenzo Argento, responsible for the exterior and interior design, and the teams at PURE Design & Engineering and SITO, the First 36 Spirit stands out for her stiff, lightweight hull, capable of reaching planing speeds in winds of just 15 knots. Her twin-rudder steering system delivers precise, responsive and balanced handling, ensuring sporty sensations and excellent control in a wide range of sailing conditions.

The modular cockpit combines ergonomics and versatility, with all controls within easy reach and a layout that can be effortlessly transformed from a practical sailing area into a comfortable space for relaxing.

Below deck, the First 36 Spirit offers a bright, open and welcoming interior, featuring three cabins, a spacious saloon and a separate bathroom. Every detail has been carefully designed to make intelligent use of space, prioritising comfort, functionality and simplicity.

Thanks to her ease of handling and competitive price, the First 36 Spirit makes the thrill of planing under sail more accessible than ever, whether for day sailing or longer passages.

Building on the success of the BENETEAU First range and a proven planing yacht concept, this model invites sailors to discover a purer, freer and more exhilarating way to experience the sea.

More sensations. A stronger connection. More time under sail. Pure sailing pleasure.
